

Kitchen? You ain't seen nothin' yet!

Hand-crafted and carved - Yowza!

Million dollar homes should offer great kitchens, but this hand-crafted masterpiece boasts hand-built and hand-carved custom cabinetry and woodwork in addition to state-of-the-art appliances and amenities that make this room the centerpiece of the home. The kitchen incorporates a comfortable area for TV and relaxation around the central fireplace. From the coffered ceiling, French doors, stainless appliances and mix of granite countertops, we are confident that this is one of the most thoughtfully designed and functional kitchens you can find...anywhere.

No expense spared At every turn, the graciousness, design and condition of the home will wow you, Note the medallions on the ceilings, beautiful crown moldings, soaring ceilings, period fireplaces and generous scale of the rooms. No expense has been spared, as the philosophy of the owners who cherish this property was to do everything well and for the long-term.

Add your own taste Like all properties of this vintage, there are still projects that a new owner can undertake to make their own mark, but this home is absolutely move in!

Painted Lady This home has sprung to life and has become a destination for those who follow the progress of beautiful restoration. The historically appropriate exterior paint job enhances the restoration of the exquisite details that make this property architecturally remarkable and just plain beautiful.

Want something very special? Please find the room-by-room guide of the upgrades and amenities of each space. A recent appraisal of the property left the appraiser slack-jawed and saying that he knew that there just weren't any other properties of comparable architectural significance and condition on the market. We've combed the market north of Boston and know this home to be a gem and compelling value. The fortunate new owner will carry on the legacy of this inspiring historic home and find Melrose to be a welcoming, culturally exciting and proud community in which to live.

Majestically set on Bellevue Avenue, deemed by Boston Magazine to be one of the "Hub's 65 absolute best streets" in their 2008 real estate issue, and known locally as Doctors' Row, sits a 4,200 square foot Italianate Victorian that has undergone a painstaking restoration.

Center granite island in the quarter of a million dollar kitchen is fabulous work space for the chef, caterer or home cook, and a great gathering spot for intimate dining with friends who can share a glass of wine and culinary duties.

How Cool is the Carriage House

This Carriage House has been restored as a 3-bay garage with lofted space. Ah, the barn. A magnificent conversion has transpired and the second level offers fabulous loft potential. The three-car garage on the first level features a staircase to giant unfinished space. In anticipation of future refurbishment the owners have electrified this space.

A half acre of land in Melrose - Exceptional. A half acre property in Melrose is highly unusual, flat and is a great canvas for the new owner.

Great Address - Great Living In this environment of healthy living, the proximity of this home to schools, downtown shopping, restaurants, library, Bellevue Country Club and commuter train, makes this an ideal location for adults and children to walk to the town's amenities. The nearby access to Routes 1, 93, 95, and 128 make getting to work or the airport a commuter's dream.